NEW THIS YEAR: Workshops, Seminars, and a Job Fair!

This year's KV Chamber Business EXPO is much more than just another networking event. Now, you have the opportunity to learn from the best of the best and, if you're hiring, meet your potential new employees!

Throughout the day, workshops, seminars, round tables will be taking place on a variety of topics which may be beneficial to you, your business, and your employees. These educational workshops and seminars will be located on the EXPO trade show floor and will be easily accessible to all exhibitors and attendees. A full schedule of speakers and topics will be announced at a later date. Registration is not required.

The 2018 Business EXPO will be an opportunities for employers and individuals seeking jobs to meet and interact. Balloons will be available to indicate each exhibitor who is hiring. Interview booths will also be available to those exhibitors who indicate they are hiring when registering for the EXPO.

This event is a terrific opportunity to build your business. Get out of the office and get up to speed on topics from technology to marketing. In a single afternoon you can network with other business professionals, prospects, and potential employees all while comparing hundreds of the latest products, services, and companies committed to helping your business grow.

Come meet the capital area's business community. Explore, make connections and learn more about what makes this area so unique! More information on page 4

The logo for the KV Chamber Business Expo is centered in the upper half of the page. It features the words "KV CHAMBER BUSINESS EXPO" in a bold, sans-serif font. "KV CHAMBER" is in purple, "BUSINESS" is in red, and "EXPO" is in a larger purple font. The text is set against a background of vertical bars in shades of green, yellow, and orange, all contained within a light green rectangular frame. The background of the entire page is a blurred photograph of a large indoor exhibition hall with many booths and people.

CHAMBER MEMBER NEWS

Augusta Downtown Alliance launches their new and improved website: augustadowntown.com. From the new homepage, it's now possible to navigate toward the top sites in and around downtown, locate specific businesses for shopping or dining, check out the latest events happening on Water Street and beyond, discover the latest economic incentives being offered for businesses and find out info about the downtown area.

Bread of Life Ministries (BOLM) annually turns away about 180 individuals/families who are seeking shelter and BOLM is unable to help them because the shelters are at max capacity. The shelter expansion project seeks to solve this issue and establish a goal of never having to say no again to any person in need of shelter services. For more information on the project and how you can donate, visit www.mainebreadoflife.org

Camden National Bank announced that they will award a total of $20,000 to four Maine-based nonprofits through their 2018 Leaders & Luminaries Awards. Camden National Bank is seeking nominations for 501(c)(3) non-profit board leaders who demonstrate passion, innovation and resourcefulness in their board governance to create organizational growth, a successful transition or financial stability. The four winners and their organizations will be recognized at the Maine Association of Nonprofits' Executive Leadership Forum on October 31, 2018.

Eaton Peabody is pleased to announce that 22 of the firm's attorneys have been selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America for 2019. Additionally, Alfred Frawley and Anne O'Donovan of Portland, earned the prestigious "Lawyer of the Year" designation, a distinction reserved for only one lawyer in each practice area and designated metropolitan area.

Gardiner Main Street will host the 9th Annual Barks in the Park event from 10:00am to 2:00pm in Gardiner's Waterfront Park. The day will be filled with events, demonstrations and a dog-walk through historic Downtown Gardiner. This event is not only to promote Gardiner as a dog friendly community, but also to get the word out about some of the dog rescue groups and other service organizations in the area. Rescue groups, vendors, agility Central of Maine, Fly Ball Dogz and the Maine State Police K9 unit will all be in attendance at the event. The event is free and open to the public with activities dogs and their owners can participate in, including several contests (best dog kiss, best costume, and a look alike contest), crafting with your dog, square dancing, a scent work class, yoga with your dog, and education about animal health and welfare.

GROUPS Recover Together in collaboration with the Maine Alliance for Addiction Recovery will be hosting a Recover Wellness Rally on September 15th at Mill Park in Augusta as part of the National Recovery Month, to celebrate recovery and encourage individuals with a mental or substance use disorder to seek treatment and achieve a healthy, happy life. This is a family event which will feature food, live music, radio broadcasts, ticket giveaways, children's games, vendor tables, stories of recovery, face painting, balloon animals, and much more from 10am to 2pm.

Kennebec Journal/Morning Sentinel is hosting a Business Breakfast Forum on September 13 at Purdue University at 7:30am. Portland Press Herald business editor Carol Coultas moderates a panel of local business leaders who will share insights and solutions to emerging trends and challenges facing the central Maine business community. Register at centralmaine.com/bizforum

MaineGeneral's Harold Alfond Center for Cancer Care welcomes oncology specialists Ridhi Gupta, MD and D. B. Nguyen, MD, PhD. Dr. Gupta, a medical oncologist, joined MaineGeneral in July after completing her advanced fellowship in blood and marrow transplantation and cellular therapy at Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA. Dr. Gupta is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine with a specialty certification in medical oncology and hematology.

Dr. Nguyen, a radiation oncologist with Radiation Oncology Associates, joined the Harold Alfond Center for Cancer Care in June. Dr. Nguyen is certified by the American Board of Radiology.

MaineGeneral Health has been recognized by Baby-Friendly USA as a Re-Designated Baby-Friendly birth facility. The Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative (BFHI) encourages and recognizes hospitals and birthing centers that offer an optimal level of care for breastfeeding mothers and their babies, such as on-site lactation consultants, offering skin-to-skin contact for newborns and mothers and newborns staying in their mothers' rooms.

MaineGeneral Health announced that Chelsea Moeller, Director of Philanthropy, has been included on the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy's (AHP) first-ever Forty Under 40 list. The Forty Under 40 program is designed to recognize the future leaders within the health care philanthropy community. AHP is honoring these 40 young professionals because they are shaping the future of the health care development industry.

MaineGeneral Surgery welcomes new plastic surgeon, Joshua Gillis, MD. He provides plastic and reconstructive surgery at both the Alford Center for Health in Augusta and the Thayer Center for Health in Waterville. Dr. Gillis comes to MaineGeneral after completing a hand and microsurgery fellowship at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN. He earned his medical degree and completed his plastic surgery surgical residency from the Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Maine State Museum celebrates the 16th year of Bug Maine-ia, Maine's largest natural science education fair, on September 11 from 9:00 am - 3:00 pm. Exhibitors provide hands-on displays, fascinating discoveries, and fun for visitors of all ages. Explore the many fascinating ways that bugs affect our lives; bugs as pets, pests, food, art, and pollinators! Admission is free all day.

Serra Public Affairs welcomes Ted Varipatis as the Director of Communications and Media and Angela Rose as the new Administrator. Ted joins Serra Public Affairs after 25 years as a key player at the state's number one news station, News Center Maine. A Gardiner, Maine native,

Angela Rose has worked in customer service in various roles throughout her career. Known throughout her community as a charitably-minded individual, she is always ready to lend a hand with a positive attitude and a ready laugh.

Sexual Assault Crisis & Support Center's Celebrity Waiter Dinner will be held on September 22 5:30-10:00pm. The event is the major fundraiser/awareness event of the year and is a fun and helpful way to support those affected by sexual violence. Reservations can be made now by visiting www.silentnomore.org. If you are unable to attend the event, you can still take part by becoming a sponsor or contributing an auction item. Please call Kathy at 207-377-1010 with any questions.
